“The Western Recreational Adult Hockey League (WRAHL) is a Calgary based hockey league for recreational players with 42 teams and over 1200 registered players. Our teams currently play in ten arenas throughout the city of Calgary with five ice times per week out of the Trico Centre.

Trico Centre has become one of the leading ice facilities in Calgary both in product and service. From friendly rink attendants, professional administration staff to excellent ice conditions and clean rooms, WRAHL players and officials always look forward to coming to Trico Centre.

WRAHL is pleased to be able to offer our participants the opportunity to play in this great facility.”

Lorne Robinson,
President, WRAHL
